

Despacho India Private Limited(henceforth Despacho) would like to be known as a Company that maintains very high standards of ethics, integrity and fairness while keeping total focus on Performance, thus contributing to the overall wellbeing of all our Employees, stakeholders including Customers, Vendors, Community and the Government. Despacho believe that abiding by this Code will create the right corporate culture, empower our employees to carry out their duties and functions and ensure sustainability of our operations.

The purpose of this document is to promote high standards of honesty, ethics and reliability expected of every employee. It does not cover every issue that may arise, but it sets out basic principles to guide all employees of the Company. It is the responsibility of all employees who are on the payroll of Despacho to adhere to the policies referred to in this document.

The company can make changes to the code of conduct at any time without prior notice, and all employees are expected to abide by the latest Code of Conduct and are encouraged to report any non- adherence.

1. LEGAL/ REGULATORY COMPLIANCE

All employees shall ensure compliance with all the relevant laws and regulations of the India affecting operations of the company at all times.

Although not all employees are expected to know the details of the laws, it is important to know enough to determine when to seek advice from managers or other appropriate personnel.

The company will conduct training sessions at regular intervals by authorized personnel to promote compliance with laws, rules and regulations.

2. BUSINESS INTERESTS

Employees shall not engage in any other concurrent employment or engaged in business, relationship or activity, which might conflict with the interest of the company. All are expected to devote full attention to the business interests of the company, and are prohibited from engaging in any other activity that interferes with their official performance of responsibilities to the company or is otherwise in conflict with the company.

Avoid any direct or indirect business connection with our customers, suppliers or competitors, except on our behalf.

Conflicts of interest may not always be clear-cut, so if you have a question about a potential conflict, you should consult with senior management.

3. CORPORATE OPPORTUNITIES

All employees should ensure that company does not lose any benefit accruing to it by negligence or delay in action. The company property, information, or position should not be used for improper personal gain, and no employees may compete with the company directly or indirectly.

Any benefit accruing to the company should be used only for company purposes.

4. FAIR DEALINGS AND EQUAL OPPORTUNITIES

Despacho respects human rights and encourages fair dealing across all levels and to all stakeholders. There shall be no discrimination on grounds of race, religion, gender, place of origin or caste. Accordingly, the company expects each employee to deal fairly and with equality with all employees, customers, suppliers, auditors of the company and encourage others to do the same.

5. GIFTING AND ENTERTAINMENT

Despacho and its employees shall neither receive nor offer or make, directly or indirectly, any illegal payments, remuneration, gifts, donations or comparable benefits that are intended to obtain uncompetitive favors for the conduct of its business.

Employees may however offer nominal gifts during the course of the business, provided such gifts are customarily given and are approved by the organization. Employees may also accept small gifts of appreciation from clients or vendors, provided this is disclosed to the organization. Employees may attend and take others out for normal or customary business lunch/dinner, at company expense. These should however not impact or compromise objectivity and fairness of an employee to take company decisions.

Regarding any gift you receive/likely to receive which you are not certain or feel inappropriate, discuss with your manager for further detail.

6. HEALTH, SAFETY AND ENVIRONMENT

Despacho strives to provide a safe, healthy and dean working environment for its people and guests who visit it.

Each employee has a responsibility for maintaining a safe, healthy and clean workplace by following safety and health rules, reporting incidents, unsafe equipment, practices or conditions.

Violence and threatening behavior are not permitted. Employees should report to work in good mental and physical condition to perform their duties, free from the influence of illegal drugs or alcohol. The use of illegal drugs or alcohol in the workplace will not be tolerated and the company may require employees to undergo tests in a random manner.

7. COMPANY RECORDS

The Company records should be maintained in compliance with all rules, laws and regulations. Adequate precautions should be taken to protect them from falling into wrong hands, which could harm company's business interests and reputation. Employees who have access to any reports or documents that should be kept up to date and free from any misleading or wrong information. Important records should be stored in a safe place and properly marked.

8. CONFIDENTIALITY

Every employee has executed a confidentiality agreement when they began their employment with Despacho. The obligation to preserve confidential information continues even after employment ends.

Compensation details are confidential and not to be disclosed to any person other than the Finance or HR Manager in case you need clarifications.

The company has the procedure of entering into confidentiality agreements with external agencies. Employees must confirm that the NDA is signed with Despacho before sharing any information with the external agencies.

As part of business, employees come across confidential information entrusted to them by the company or its customers. (for e.g., Client project details and deliverables, Login Credentials, Company's profile, logo, customer feedback and testimonial, Credit Card Information etc.,). An employee should use this information judiciously and not ask for any information that is not necessary to accomplish the client project.

Employees who have access to proprietary and confidential information must take precautions to keep it confidential and ensure that it is not used for personal commercial benefit, or misused in any way which is detrimental to the company's business. Information should be disclosed on a "NEED TO KNOW" basis only to those people who are part of the project.

9. COMPANY RESOURCES

All the assets of the Company (both tangible and intangible) shall be deployed for the purpose of conducting the business for which they are duly authorized for. None of these should be misused or diverted for any personal commercial use or benefit, unless such use is allowed under the terms of employment.

All employees should endeavor to protect the company's assets and ensure their efficient use. Theft, carelessness, and waste have a direct impact on the company's profitability. Any suspected incident of fraud or theft should be immediately reported for investigation.

10. COST CONSCIOUSNESS

All employees are expected to strive for optimum utilization of available resources. They shall exercise due care to ensure that all costs incurred are reasonable and there is no wastage of resources. Every time a cost is incurred, proper evaluation of such cost vs benefits should be done. Proper approvals as per company policies should be taken before any costs are committed.

11. COMMUNICATIONS

All information reported or communicated by the company should be factually correct, complete and accurate. Proper cautionary statements shall accompany wherever necessary, to avoid any misunderstanding or any unintended harm.

12. INTERACTION WITH MEDIA

Only CEO and persons officially designated for such interactions should engage with any member of press and media in matters concerning the company. Any requests for interaction should be directed to CEO or such authorized persons.

13. INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS

All inventions and innovations during course of employment should belong to the company. These include trade secrets, patents, trademarks, copyrights, new products, processes, services, marketing plans, designs, databases, records, salary information and any unpublished financial data or reports that get developed while working on various assignments. Every employee should take precaution to prevent any loss of such IP rights, by keeping things confidential & safe and reporting to management for applying for Patent, Trademark and Copy Rights.

Unauthorized use or distribution of this information would violate company policy. It could also be illegal and result in civil or even criminal penalties.

14. POLITICAL CONTRIBUTIONS

Despacho believes in fairness and equality. In order to avoid any conflicts and political alignments, we shall not participate in any political activities or contributions.

15. GOVERNMENT SUPPORT AND TAXES

All employees are expected to provide full support to any Government compliance requirements. All due taxes shall be computed properly and paid on time. Proper disclosures should be made wherever there is lack of full clarity and an opinion is formed.

16. EMPLOYEE FEEDBACK MECHANISM

Employees are required to seek the right source to provide feedback.

Do not make personal judgments or comments on anybody. Approach the grievance committee, if, for any issues.

The company welcomes feedback on every aspect which can result into improvement of day to day function.

17. TRAINING PROGRAM

Training will be conducted from time to time to educate on the policies of Despacho and also to look into various suggestions.

18. WHISTLE BLOWER / REPORTING OF UNACCEPTABLE BEHAVIOUR

The company expects that every employee of Despacho shall report to the management, any actual or possible events, when becomes known, that could result into a violation of code or affect the reputation of the company.

Unacceptable behavior falls into three categories - Policy Violation, Unacceptable Performance and Work Place Harassment as described below.

19. POLICY VIOLATION

Any deviation from the Code of Conduct will be regarded as a violation. Any noncompliance with Despacho policies and guidelines will also constitute a violation.

20. UNACCEPTABLE PERFORMANCE

Failure to meet expected levels of performance

- Consistent poor feedbacks from client/TL/AM with no noticeable improvement during follow-ups
- Regular delays or missing deadlines on client work as well as internal tasks/responsibilities
- Lack of interest and enthusiasm for client and internal task/responsibilities
- Not open or unaccepting of mistakes or feedback client/internal regarding task/responsibilities
- Not meeting the performance standards/targets/goals as specified by the organization from time to time

21. WORKPLACE HARASSMENT

Despacho is committed to creating a transparent, fair and friendly culture and believes in providing a grievance-free work environment for all employees. The organization not only strives to resolve employee grievances, but also looks at ways and methods of reducing future grievances in the organization (Please refer to the Grievance Redressal Policy).

It's also expected that all information exchanged on above events be kept confidential between the employee and the company. Refer whistle-blower policy for further clarification.

22. DISCIPLINARY ACTION

Non adherence to this document could attract severe consequences including termination of employments.